

About Canberra

Canberra was an Olympic Football City in 2000 and is often referred to as "The Bush Capital" of Australia. Canberra offers a range of attractions, which are of a national and international significance. You can get up close and personal with a range of animals at the National Zoo and Aquarium, test your sporting skills in Sportex at the Australian Institute of Sport, or visit the National Museum of Australia. There is something for everyone so why not 'see yourself' at the 2009 McDonald's Kanga Cup and see what Canberra has to offer on and off the football pitch.

International Team Nomination Information

See yourself in Canberra, Australia from July 12-17 2009 at the 20th McDonald's Kanga Cup International Youth Football Tournament

Capital Football and the FFA sanction the McDonald's Kanga Cup. The Kanga offers the most competitive club football in Australasia, welcoming members of the FFA football family as well as those from all over the world.

The philosophy of 'the Kanga' is to 'Unite the Youth of the World through Football.' This theme is emphasised not only in the on-field aspect of the tournament but also the event's social program. This program includes; opening ceremony, host nights with local clubs, movie nights, discos and an awards ceremony. The McDonald's Kanga Cup offers a memorable junior football experience – not just for the players but also the coaches, managers and parents.

Established in 1991, the McDonald's Kanga Cup is the fifth largest youth football event of its kind in the world and the largest in the southern hemisphere. Each year around 200 teams from around the world converge on Canberra for a festival week of world-class football competition and cultural experiences. Many international teams from Asia, Oceania and North America are expected to compete in 2010. The Kanga Cup has evolved over its history and now caters for ALL standards in the competitions.
